Bregno Rubber Float is a reliable tool for applying and finishing grout on tiled surfaces with smooth, even results. Available in soft and hard body variants, it caters to different surface types and user preferences. The soft body float is ideal for delicate or textured tiles, allowing flexibility and control, while the hard body version is perfect for firm pressure on smooth, even surfaces. Its ergonomic handle provides a comfortable grip, reducing hand fatigue during extended use. Durable and easy to clean, this float is a must-have for professional tilers and DIYers aiming for a clean, polished grout finish.
